

Book of the Month

- December 2011 -

G. LAURIE, CALVARY, JESUS ROCK, AND ROME

By David Cloud

Greg Laurie, senior pastor Harvest Christian Fellowship a mega-church associated with Calvary Chapel, is also the founder of the Harvest evangelistic crusades, in which capacity he is holding hands with Rome. This spring Laurie invited Catholic Bishop David Ricken to share the platform with him at the Life st crusade in Oshkosh, Wisc.

Ricken is a great devotee of Rome's false Mary and her demonic apparitions. A year ago he approved an 150 year old apparition of Mary known as Our Lady of Good Help in Champion, Wisconsin, having spent two years studying the "authenticity of the Marian visitation." The shrine in Champion depicts Mary as Queen of Heaven holding a perpetual baby Jesus and being worshipped by angels. By inviting Ricken to participate in his evangelism crusade, it is frightfully apparent that Greg Laurie cannot discern between the true gospel and a false one, between a demon masquerading as an angel of light and the Spirit of God.

We believe he has had one dose too many of Christian rock, which is the most powerful element of the mysticism that is creating the one-world church.

... read more: www.wayoflife.org.

See also our list: A World of Powerful Christian literature:
www.thespiritofprophecypublications.dk/forkortet.html

Quite Contrary

By Timothy Kauffmann

Biblical response to Marian apparitions in the world. //